

TWO HOMES WITH A NICE GARDEN

The village of Wreay, Cumbria

Woodside Lodge in the county¹ of Cumbria in the north-west of England comes from the year of 1880. It is a house with four bedrooms.

The gardens have big areas with lawn², bluebells³ and a lot of places to sit or eat outside.

There is a summer house at the top of the garden with a pond⁴ with water-lillies⁵. The large living room has French doors and a terrace with a covered seating area with a fireplace⁶ and a garden room. The price of the house is £595,000 (± 17 million CZK).

The county of Cumbria is the home of actor Stan Laurel, the short man from Laurel and Hardy comedies.

The town of Torquay, Devon

The gardens at Washington House in the county of Devon in the south-west of England come from the year of 1850.

There is a big terrace and the house with five bedrooms has a nice view of the gardens, woods⁷ and the sea. There is a direct access to the coastal path and Watcombe beach⁸. The price of the house is £1,250,000 (± 36 million CZK).

The county of Devon is the home of Agatha Christie, the famous writer of detective stories.

Vocabulary:¹hrabství|²trávník|³zvonky(rostlina)|⁴rybník|⁵lekníny|⁶ krb|⁷les|⁸pláž

Language notes: lodge=domek|at the top of=nahoře (něčeho)|covered seating area=kryté místo k sezení|a nice view (of)=hezký výhled (na)|a direct access to=přímý vstup (na) |coastal path=pobřežní stezka

Sources: guardian.com|en.wikipedia.org