

MEDA MLÁDKOVÁ'S 100TH BIRTHDAY

On the 24th of June 2019, you can go to Kampa Museum to see a theatre play. The name of the theatre play is Meda. It is a special play, because it's connected with Meda Mládková's this year's 100th birthday. The last opportunity¹ to see the play is on the 8th of September 2019.

Important dates in the life of Meda Mládková (*September 8, 1919):

1946: Meda goes to Switzerland, where she studies economics² at university.

1953: Meda goes to Paris, where she becomes friends with Jan Viktor Mládek, her future husband³. He is a banker⁴.

1960: Meda and Jan get married and go to Washington. They live in the U.S.A., and they start to collect⁵ art.

1989: Meda returns to Czechoslovakia, because her husband dies.

2003: After a reconstruction of Sova's Mills, Meda opens a modern art gallery. It is called Kampa Museum. The exhibited⁶ works of art in the gallery come from her own collection⁷.
